Look what you've done. How could you fall so far? You should be ashamed of yourself.
So I was ashamed of myself. The lies I believed; they got some roots that run deep.
I let 'em take a hold of my life, I let 'em take control of my life.

Refrain:

Standing in Your presence, Lord, I can feel You digging all my roots up.
I can feel You healing all my wounds up; all I can say is hallelujah.
Look what You've done! Look what You've done in me.
You spoke Your truth into the lies I let my heart believe.
Look at me now, look how You've made me new.
The enemy did everything that he could do.
Oh, but look what You've done.

Suddenly all the shame is gone; I thought I was too broken now I see, You were breaking new ground inside of me.

Refrain:

On the cross; in a grave; with a stone rolled away.
All my debt it was paid; Look what You've done.
In my heart, in my mind, in my soul, in my life;
With my hands lifted high, I'm singing "Look what You've done!"

Look what you've done. How could you fall so far? You should be ashamed of yourself.
So I was ashamed of myself. The lies I believed; they got some roots that run deep.
I let 'em take a hold of my life, I let 'em take control of my life.

Have you ever experienced a time when the opinion of some person/group affected you this deeply? When you felt it took control of your life? Describe what brought you to that point, and how it felt. What made you realize they were lies?

Luke 4:18-19 "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he has appointed me to preach Good News to the poor; he has sent me to heal the brokenhearted and to announce that captives shall be released and the blind shall see, that the downtrodden shall be freed from their oppressors, and that God is ready to give blessings to all who come to him." The Living Bible¹

What value do you see in having Jesus digging up your roots? Do you feel healing can happen without his step? Why do you feel this way?
What truth do you need Jesus to speak into your heart to help you heal? How would it feel to you to be made new?

Suddenly all the shame is gone; I thought I was too broken
now I see, You were breaking new ground inside of me.

Psalm 3:2-5 "So many say that God will never help me. But Lord, you are my shield, my glory, and my only hope. You alone can lift my head, now bowed in shame. I cried out to the Lord, and he heard me from his Temple in Jerusalem. Then I lay down and slept in peace and woke up safely, for the Lord was watching over me." The Living Bible¹

With God watching over you, what might you do with "new ground"?

On the cross; in a grave; with a stone rolled away.
All my debt it was paid; Look what You've done.
In my heart, in my mind, in my soul, in my life;
With my hands lifted high, I'm singing "Look what You've done!"

1 Peter 2:24 "He personally carried the load of our sins in his own body when he died on the cross so that we can be finished with sin and live a good life from now on. For his wounds have healed ours!"
The Living Bible¹

What song will you sing?

*"But now God has shown us a different way to heaven - not by "being good enough" and trying to keep his laws, but by a new way (though not new, really, for the Scriptures told about it long ago). Now God says he will accept and acquit us
- declare us "not guilty" - if we trust Jesus Christ to take away our sins.
And we all can be saved in this same way, by coming to Christ, no matter who we are or what we have been like."*
